Production Note: MOM is in her early 40's with a kind, happy voice. DREW is a child of about 12-13 with a higher-pitched, youthful voice. ANNCR is a woman in her 50's with a peaceful, soothing voice.

(MUSIC: UPBEAT, HAPPY, ACOUSTIC GUITAR UP AND UNDER)

MOM: Hey honey, I'm making the shopping list for this week. Any requests?

DREW: Could you grab some more deodorant, Mom?

MOM: You ran out already? I just bought some last week.

DREW: Not exactly, no.

MOM: What do you need it for? A science experiment or something?

DREW: (pause) No, my friend Jeremy's parents can't afford deodorant, and people are starting to make fun of him.

(MORE)

(SFX: PEN WRITING ON PAPER)

PARENT: It's on the list, sweetie.

(MUSIC: SLOWER, MORE SOMBER ACOUSTIC GUITAR UP AND UNDER)

ANNCR: Families deserve access to essential items. Donate everyday items to a shelter near you. Brought to you by The Care Store on High Street.
